

Updated: February 8, 2012 2:19AM

Job fairs will be held starting Saturday and continuing every other Saturday through March for 3,200 seasonal job openings at Six Flags Great America in Gurnee.

The jobs range from cooks to game operators and costumed characters to paramedics, with pay from $8.25 to $12 an hour or higher in certain cases, said Great America spokeswoman Jennifer Dugan Savage. The seasonal jobs include some paid internships and management-level positions, and some jobs last up to eight months, she said.

The amusement park hired the same number of seasonal workers last year.

Applicants are asked to complete an online form at sixflagsjobs.com before they attend a job fair.

The job fairs will be from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 25, March 10 and March 24 at the Six Flags Great America headquarters employee entrance at 542 N. Route 21 in Gurnee.

The positions include: cooks, dancers, singers, lifeguards, paramedics/EMTs, landscapers, games workers, parade and costumed characters and workers in operations, guest relations, retail sales, cash control.